

Jeremy Davis Named CEO of Consolidated Glass Holdings

BOULDER, CO — Consolidated Glass Holdings (CGH), an affiliate company of Grey Mountain Partners, is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy Davis to the position of Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Davis joins CGH with over 20 years of industrial leadership experience, spanning a wide variety of industries such as specialty chemicals, aerospace, electrical power distribution, and medical device manufacturing. In addition to the industry breadth, Mr. Davis brings a wide array of experiences from manufacturing and operational excellence to product line management, sales, and strategy. His relentless focus on continuous improvement and profitable growth will be a great asset for CGH as it continues to integrate the 2016 acquisition of J.E. Berkowitz and improve all of the legacy operating locations in the group.

Prior to joining CGH, Mr. Davis spent nearly seven years leading several Danaher business units. Most recently, he was President of SenDx Medical. While at SenDx, Mr. Davis delivered double digit growth while significantly improving key operational metrics, instilling a continuous improvement culture, and recruiting key talent to the management team. Prior to SenDx, Mr. Davis enjoyed great success in Danaher's Pacific Scientific aerospace business. He was President of the Electro Kinetics Division before his promotion to take over the larger OECO division. During his time at Pacific Scientific, Mr. Davis delivered impressive growth results, sustained margin expansion, and improved customer service levels. He also completed the acquisition and integrated a power sensing business, led large strategic cost savings initiatives and ultimately championed the successful divestiture of the division..

Before joining Danaher, Mr. Davis had a range of progressive roles at Eaton's Aerospace and Electrical Groups, including assignments in strategy, operational excellence, and global product line management. Notably, his experience in Eaton's Power Distribution operations lends itself well to the nature of the CGH customer base. Mr. Davis holds a B.S. In Chemical Engineering from the University of Oklahoma, and an MBA from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University.

Mr. Davis also participated in the Grey Mountain Partners Executive Sponsorship (ES) program, evaluating new platform opportunities and pursuing investment theses in medical diagnostic devices, aerospace components, and contract manufacturing.

About Grey Mountain Partners

Grey Mountain Partners is a Boulder, Colorado-based private equity firm that focuses on partnering with management teams to create lasting value through operational improvements and by supporting strategic growth initiatives. The firm invests in lower middle-market companies across a wide range of industries and has approximately $700 million of assets under management.

About Grey Mountain Partners Executive Sponsor Program

The Grey Mountain Partners Executive Sponsorship Program (“ES Program”) involves working in tandem with high potential, C-level leaders in order to acquire businesses that together we believe have the potential for long-term value creation. For nearly a decade, we have been supporting executives in the ES Program with professional and financial resources and, in turn, these relationships generate a significant number of closed platform investments and current transaction opportunities.
